You do not need to tell us anything that:

- reduces the risk We insure You for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- We know or should know as an insurer; or

If you do not tell us something

Where the Insurance Contract Acts applies: If You do not tell us anything You are required to, We may cancel Your contract or reduce the amount We will pay you if You make a claim, or both.

- the method used to move and pack the Insured Goods;
- Sum Insured;
- Location of any Self Nominated Storage involved in the move;

The cooling off period does not apply if the Insured Transit has commenced and/or You have made a claim.

Resolving Your complaints

What You do and who You contact if You have a complaint or dispute involving Us:

If You have a complaint or dispute about Your insurance Policy, decisions on Your claim or the service You have received from Us or one of Our authorised representatives, You may access Our Internal Dispute Resolution process.

The first step is to contact Your closest NTI office. Contact details can be obtained by visiting www.nti.com.au and a brochure on Our Dispute Resolution Service is available from all NTI offices.

Internal dispute resolution - complaints

Once You contact Us, Our staff will help You in every way they can. If You are not satisfied with the outcome Your complaint will be referred to the staff member's supervisor who will deal with it promptly.

If You are still not satisfied Your complaint can be handled through Our Internal Dispute Resolution service by a different employee who has appropriate experience, knowledge and authority to conduct a full review.

To access that service, ask the Supervisor or Manager You are dealing with to refer Your complaint to Our Dispute Resolution Officer. Your complaint will then be treated as a dispute.

Internal dispute resolution - disputes

We will notify You of the name and contact details of the employee assigned to liaise with You in relation to Your dispute. That employee will acknowledge receipt of Your dispute in writing, usually within 5 working days.

Provided that We have all the necessary information and no investigations are in progress, a final decision on Your dispute will be forwarded to You in writing, usually within 15 working days. External Dispute Resolution

Our Internal Dispute Resolution Service is designed to seek to resolve any complaints or disputes that may arise. However, if We are unable to resolve Your dispute to Your satisfaction within 45 days, We will inform you of the reasons for the delay and that You can take Your dispute to Our EDR scheme, administered by the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA), even if We are still considering it (and provided Your dispute is within AFCA Terms of Reference). We are a member of AFCA which is an ASIC approved external dispute resolution scheme and it may be able to resolve Your dispute. You may be entitled to assistance from the AFCA, however this is subject to the claim circumstances and the AFCA eligibility criteria.

Before the end of that 45 day period We will inform You that You have this right and details of how to access Our EDR Scheme.

AFCA is responsible for monitoring compliance with the General Insurance Code of Practice. It is available to customers and third parties who fall within its Terms of Reference and is an impartial body that is completely independent of Us. AFCA will initially determine whether Your dispute falls within its Terms of Reference and will notify You whether it may proceed to review Your dispute.

Your dispute must be lodged with AFCA within two years of the date of Our final decision.

Where AFCA Terms of Reference do not extend to Your dispute We will advise You to seek independent legal advice or give You information about other external dispute resolution options, if any, that are available to You.

Our contribution will be limited to $250 per day and for a maximum period of 30 days. This payment will be in addition to the Sum Insured shown in the Policy Schedule.

OPTIONAL BENEFIT

You are only covered for the Optional Benefit below if it is shown on Your Policy Schedule.

GST Claim settlements - where We agree to pay

When We calculate the amount We will pay You, We will have regard to the following:

- where You are liable to pay an amount for GST in respect of an acquisition relevant to Your claim (such as services to repair a damaged item Covered under this Policy) We will pay for the GST amount;
- We will pay the GST amount in addition to the Sums Insured or other limits shown in the Policy or in the Policy Schedule;
- if Your Sum Insured/ Limit of Liability is not sufficient to cover Your loss, We will only pay the GST amount that relates to Our settlement of Your claim;
- We will reduce the GST amount We pay for by the amount of any Input Tax Credits to which You are or would be entitled;
- where We make a payment under this Policy as compensation instead of payment for a relevant acquisition, We will reduce the amount of the payment by the amount of any Input Tax Credit that you would have been entitled to had the payment been applied to a relevant acquisition.

What You must pay if You make a claim - Excess

'Excess' means the amount You must pay towards a claim You make under this Policy. For most claims You make on this Policy, You will have to pay the Excess which is shown on Your Policy Schedule or, unless specifically mentioned in Your current Policy Schedule, an Excess mentioned in this policy. Any Excess(es) will only apply once.

You must pay any Excess to Us, or to the supplier or repairer - We will tell You when and who to pay the Excess to.

If We choose to pay You, We may deduct the amount of the Excess from the amount We settle Your claim for.

When You must pay Your Excess

You must pay the amount of any Excess when We tell you to.

When You do not have to pay an Excess

No Excess applies where loss or damage occurs as a result of a Listed Event shown under Cover Option 2 (regardless of the Cover option selected).
